PRESS RELEASE

“Alamgir Welfare Trust International is rendering its amazing services with utmost transparency.” Prof. Dr. Pirzada Qasim Raza Siddiqui.

Vice chancellor, Karachi University, Professor Dr. Pirzada Qasim Raza Siddiqui, acknowledged the services rendered by Alamgir Welfare Trust International and termed them as amazing and highly transparent. He was addressing the parents of 100 Needy students present at the ceremony to collect cheques of one year school fee of their children.

He said that Alamgir Welfare Trust Int'l is one of its kind organization, which planned its strategy after analyzing the needs of the society. The Trust, he said, is engaged in dozens of other activities to help underprivileged humanity, apart from its regular services of health & education. He emphasized on the importance of education and termed it as the ultimate solution of all the problems.

He said that we should thank the Almighty that he blessed us with such organizations which are assisting the humanity without any discrimination. He also advised the parents of the qualified students to recognize the efforts of the Trust by continuing the education of their children.

He wished the Trust & its associates to get more energy and blessings. The chairman, Mr. Ch. Nisar Ahmed presented a memorial shield to the respectable guest and thanked him.

Apart from bearing monthly schooling expenses for the whole year, Alamgir Welfare Trust Int'l also provided school & college courses to 2000 students worth Rs.2 Million.
