

6-Aug-10

PRESS RELEASE

Alamgir Welfare Trust Commenced relief work for the flood affectees of Khyber Pakhtoonkhah from an initial fund of Rs 6 Million.

Karachi- Relief work for the victims of flood in Khyber Pakhtoonkhah is in progress from Alamgir Welfare Trust Int'l. Spokesman Alamgir Trust told that a high level delegation including Shameem Ahmed Chandna, Engineer Rehan Yaseen, Chohdry Imran Nisar and other team members is busy in providing Medicines and food items among the flood affectees.

He added that several camps are set up in Noshehra, Charsadda, and Pubbi to accelerate the relief activities. Relief team has distributed medicines worth Rs 1.6 Million, edible items worth Rs.1.1 Million and other house hold items of Rs.0.2 Million in Umar Zai, Otman Zai, Charsadda, Mohib banda, Aman Cot, Pabbi, Akora Khatak, Noshehra and Mardan. Besides Medicines and food items bottled water, Pillow, Mats, Rubber Slippers, Utensils, Coolers, and water tanks have been provided to displaced flood affectees of the province.

In this connection, relief Camps have also been set up in Karachi and Islamabad offices where donation in kind and cash are being collected. These collected items will be sent to the flood affected areas of Balochistan, Punjab and Sindh along with Khyber Pakhtoonkhah.

Board of Trustees of Alamgir Welfare Trust has appealed their donors to provide maximum support to flood affectees in this time of hardship.

#