PRESS RELEASE

“Our nation needs more organizations like Alamgir Welfare Trust International”

Anawar Ahmed Zai

Chairman Intermediate Board of Education Karachi said that he was impressed by the working parameters of the trust and the selflessness of its board. He was speaking to the needy students and their parents at the “School fee Cheque distribution Ceremony” at Alamgir Welfare Trust.

He pointed out that seeking knowledge is the duty of every Muslim, but doing the same with zeal and zest becomes an act of honour.

He also emphasized on the protection of ideology and declared Schools as the fortress of these ideologies. He added that the trust is working without any discrimination and is serving the humanity with enormous zeal.

Renowned educationalist and General Secretary Association of recognized secondary schools; Mr. Sultan Masood Sheikh also addressed the audience and advised the parents to protect their children from the curse of copy culture. He appreciated the role of Alamgir trust in providing quality educational facilities to poor and less privileged students.

Mr. Shakeel Dehelvi, Joint secretary general, briefed the guests about the services rendered by the trust in the field of education and told that more than 4 million Rupees were provided to needy students under the head of school fee. The ceremony is also attended by Moin Siddiqui, Secretary, intermediate & secondary board of education Hyderabad, Syed Zakir Ali Jaafri, and Members board of Trustees AWT. The guests after distributing school fee cheques to 100 students, also visited different departments of Alamgir Welfare Trust.
