

6-Jan-11

PRESS RELEASE

LETHAL INFLATION ATTACKS BLUE & WHITE COLLAR FAMILIES IN 2011

Karachi- Lethal inflation attacks blue and white collar families in 2011. Every new day is adding worries for the poor class of the country making their lives more miserable. In these circumstances, the very existence of social institution is a real bliss.

Alamgir Welfare Trust is playing its role with the patronage of its donors to help out the victims of soaring inflation, spokesman Alamgir Welfare Trust, Shakeel Dehelvi stated in a press statement.

He added it has become impossible for the working class of the society to put two square meals on their tables, where as Alamgir Trust is providing the meat of sacrificial goats and Cows, to them.

Mr. Dehelvi gave statistics and figures for the Month of Dec 2010 in which 21360Kgs of Sadqa meat is provided to students of 200 schools and institutions, 5000 poor families, hundred of gynea and TB patients for their nutritional needs, hundreds of students at Dar-ul-Uloom, to the attendants of patients at Government and Charity hospitals, at the marriages of poor and orphans girls by food cooked by this meat and to 2000 labors seeking work at different places of Karachi. This meat in both (raw and cooked form) is obtained from the goats and other sacrificial animals which donors sacrifice at Alamgir Trust. The spokesman appealed to the well off families and donors to perform more and more of these sacrifices and Sadqa to achieve peace of mind and eternal bliss and at the same time helping tens of thousands of indigent people.

#